

Additional Material

Ecosystem services

Current recreation and tourism:

Tourism is limited in the reserve. Only the educational nature trail is open to visitors. It is visited by 2,000–3,000 people per year. Local residents are allowed to walk in the entire territory in the cranberry picking season (10 days). Scientists conducting scientific research are allowed to walk in the entire territory.